Three Children Badly Burned, Family Flees Haliburton Blaze

Three Haliburton boys were taken to the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto for treatment of burns suffered when fire struck their home late last Thursday night.

The three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McGuire are Murray Shane, eight, in serious condition with third degree burns to the upper torso; Douglas Conway, 14, with third degree burns to his hands and face; and Donald David, 12, with third degree burns to his hands and face and second degree burns to his left leg.

Their mother, Mrs. Ieleen McGuire, also suffered minor facial burns and was treated by Dr. H. E. Good of Haliburton.

Three other children escaped injury — Kelly, five; Erin, six; and Lene, 10.

The three injured boys were trapped on the second floor, and reached safety by jumping from a verandah roof. By this time, volunteer fireman Rick Poole had arrived and Mrs. Lynda Brohm, a neighbour of the McGuires and also a nurse, borrowed the Poole car to take the three boys and their mother to Dr. Good's office.

Mrs. McGuire accompanied her sons to Toronto in the ambulance, and the three girls were taken into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wood.

The father was away deer hunting, and shortly after the fire he was contacted and returned to the village.

Dysart Fire Chief Don Iles said fire broke out in their two-storey frame home on Highland Street in the village about 10:00 p.m., stating that the cause was a spliced extension cord running along the floor underneath a cardboard box. The heat generated enough combustion to start it smouldering and causing the fire. Firefighting crews from the Dysart Fire Department spent three-and-a-half hours at the scene of the blaze. The Fire Chief said that the building was old with many partitions, and it was difficult to quell the fire.

The house, which left the family of six children and their parents homeless, was gutted.

Two Youngsters 'Holding On'

Two of three youngsters rushed to the Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto last Thursday night from the Village of Haliburton following a house fire are reported to be "holding their own", but the third and youngest is "critically ill".

All three were badly burned. Shane McGuire, eight, is critically ill and his brothers Conway, 14, and David, 12, are holding their own. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McGuire. The family was left homeless by a fire in their Highland Street home.

Man Killed While Hunting

Ontario Provincial Police of the Cobocok Detachment are continuing investigation into the accidental death of a Kirkfield man on Monday.

Dead is John Joseph Harrigan, 47, of R.R. 3, Kirkfield.

The man accidentally shot himself during a hunting mishap on Monday morning, but police have as yet released no details. The investigation is continuing under O.P.P. Constable Craig Black.

Unnamed Hunter Found Next Day

Search parties organized by the Minden Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police and Lands and Forests last Wednesday found a missing hunter in the Harcourt Park area, north of Wilberforce.

The man, whose name was not given, failed to return to his camp on the Tuesday night after a day in the woods.

Police report that he was found shortly before noon last Wednesday, after spending the night in 40-degree temperatures.

Snowmobile Assn. To Hold Meeting

The Haliburton County Snowmobile Association will hold an Open Meeting on Wednesday, November 17, at 8:00 p.m. in the Minden Council Chambers (over the Fire Hall), and everyone is invited to attend. Speakers for the evening will be Ross Clark, Hill and Gully Snowmobile Club, Port Sydney; and Ross Wiegand, Kawartha Tourist Association, Peterborough.

Much time and effort has been expended on choosing acceptable snowmobile routes for a map of the county trails. Property owners have been contacted and the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association is indeed grateful to those who granted permission to cross. It can now be reported that the preliminary work is all but completed and the final design will be submitted to the printers in the very near future.

Business operators are urged to apply now for commercial membership to the Association to insure inclusion of their credit line in this first publication.

Bell Canada Make Application For Service Charge Increases

Bell Canada will pin a great deal of its case on initiation when it appears before the Canadian Transport Commission to justify its appeal for an increase in telephone rates.

The company says that expenses are rising faster than revenues with the rates it's charging now. This was mainly due to increased levels of salaries, wages and benefits, increased research and development expenses and increased costs and depreciation expenses.

Bell says it will show during the C.T.C. hearings that it had done all in its power to help fight inflation, but that it just had to have additional revenues to meet the current and projected needs of its subscribers.

In Haliburton, basic rates could go up 40 cents a month for individual line residence service, with a similar percentage increase for business service.

Bell's basic rates are figured on the number of telephones you can reach without paying a long distance charge, plus application of a formula based on distances between exchange centres.

Present and proposed residential rates for the Haliburton exchange are as follows:

	Present	Proposed
Individual	$4.05	$4.45
Two-Party	$3.15	$3.45
Multi-Party	$3.05	$3.35

Icy Roads Cause Accidents

Winter's first blast on Sunday afternoon left Lindsay area roads like skating rinks, caught many drivers without snow tires, and caused one highway death.

Howard Lawrence Hill, 17, of Joseph Street, Bobcaygeon, died on Sunday evening when his car hit an ice-covered stretch of County Road 8 one mile west of Bobcaygeon. Police said he lost control of his car which skidded into a ditch and rolled over twice and came to rest on its roof. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hill of that village. Mrs. Hill (formerly Lillian Barjarow) was once a resident in Haliburton.

But, in another almost identical mishap an Oshawa couple escaped unscathed. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard R. Cunningham of LaSalle Avenue were approaching a hill on the Deep Bay Road when the icy surface caused the car to skid. The vehicle left the road and tumbled over a 10-foot embankment, rolling over twice. Although they were unhurt, their car was damaged an estimated $1,500.

Police in the Minden Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police, who investigated, said there were eight other accidents on Sunday that could have been attributed to bad road conditions.

On at least three hills in the area of Haliburton traffic backed up as drivers vainly attempted to get over the hump.

Oscar F. Schrader Called By Death

The Village of Haliburton lost one of its older citizens when Mr. Oscar F. Schrader passed on to a greater reward on Monday, November 8, 1971. The deceased was in his 94th year.

The late Mr. Schrader's remains rested at the Funeral Chapel of John Welch and Son, Minden, until Wednesday, November 10, where the service was held at 2:00 p.m. Interment was made in the Minden Cemetery.

HALIBURTON NEWS LETTER

Oh how the people go for the Hunters' Ball — on Friday night last over 400 crowded into the Canadian Legion Hall at Haliburton for the big event of the hunting season. This Friday night they will do it all over again.

They're growing big turnips in Haliburton. Bill McDougall of this village told us that he took a 19-pound 10-ounce turnip out of his garden over the weekend. This could be a record!

In talking with several hunters this week, they tell us that there are fewer hunters in the bush this year and that most of the counts are down.

Once again this year, the demand for adult and pre-school skating on Wednesday afternoons is very high, and the Recreation Committee are going ahead with this every Wednesday afternoon from 2:00 to 3:30 p.m. The afternoon skating will continue only if enough people are interested to attend. It is at the Haliburton Arena and admission is only .50c for adults and .25c for pre-school children.

Huskies Look Strong In First Week's Practices

The Haliburton Huskies Juniors took to the ice for the first time last Friday evening with a mixture of returnees and some new faces. Although it is very difficult to tell what kind of a team the Huskies will end up in the Central Ontario Junior 'D' Hockey League, after the first two practices it appears to be a contender for the league leadership.

The Huskies are in a difficult position because of the short amount of time they have before the first game and the hunting season, along with exams at the high school, as it makes it almost impossible for the players to concentrate on hockey. The first two games will be quite a test for them, but if they can win them they will certainly be in a good position from then on. The Bobcaygeon Ti-Cats will be the first opposition for the Huskies this Friday night in Bobcaygeon, and this will be a good test for this year's edition of the Huskies as the Ti-Cats are usually strong and always put up a good game. The Bancroft Laundry Jets will be in Haliburton for the Huskies' home opener on Saturday night, and the Bancroft club should also be a strong entry this season.

The Huskies will have their same defence as they had last year as Bob Woodcock has decided to return home on the weekends and play with the Haliburton team; this is Bob's final year of junior hockey, and the executive is looking for a big season from him. John Parish, who has become the Huskies' biggest hitter, will team with Woodcock, and Jamie Carroll and Larry LaPorte will become the other pair on the defence. Gerry McElwain will be the only two-year man on the forward line, but Jeff Campbell and Bev Hicks are returnees from last year. Rick Wood, John Wilson and Roger Bain, along with Rick Dunsford, should also have good years. Dennis Good appears to have a strong hold on the goal-tending chore, but Lewis O'Hara and Larry Kent are challenging him. Some of the new faces that the fans will see are Bill Leary, Leigh Bull, Ed McCallum, Royce Miller and Floyd Henry. All in all, the Huskies will be a good solid team and certainly a credit to the Highlands of Haliburton.

ICE-CHIPS: The Huskies will be sporting a new set of home uniforms this season and they will be all white with yellow and black trim along with black pants. The prices for the games will not change as admission is $1.00 for adults and .50c for children under 14. The Haliburton Arena is sporting a new coat of yellow paint inside the building along with a fresh coat for the boards, and it certainly brightens the arena interior. Remember to be in attendance this Saturday night, November 13, as the local Huskies will take on the Bancroft Jets.

Social Planning Council Meet

The Haliburton County Social Planning Council officially came into being on Wednesday, October 27, at a meeting held in the Auditorium of the Hyland Crest Senior Citizens' Home in Minden. For the past six months the group has been meeting regularly and developing a sense of purpose and direction.

The Wednesday meeting officially adopted the name Haliburton County Social Planning Council, and the following statement of purpose:

This organization is concerned with individual communities and people within the County of Haliburton, so that citizens of all ages may lead full and complete lives. Participation is invited from representatives of all organizations committed to serve the needs of people within the County.

We will assess the needs of the community and plan and initiate new community programmes. We shall attempt to provide a liaison group representative of all organizations concerned with the academic, spiritual, physical and civic needs and services of people of the County.

We shall achieve our objectives by regular monthly meetings, publication of a social services directory, hearings of individual people and groups concerned with the betterment of the community, regular press coverage, making representation to government bodies and other relevant action.

Chairman of the Council is the Reverend Frank A. Ford, and the Secretary is Mrs. Joan Fennell.

A steering committee of the Council meets regularly, and a number of special committees are already at work on concerns which have been brought to the Council for consideration and action.

Regular press releases will be issued by Press Relations Officer Andrew S. Hutchison, as the work of the Council and its special committees develops.

County Clerk-Treasurer Retires

Simpkins - Outram Wedding Held

A very pretty wedding took place in the Fenelon Falls United Church on Saturday, October 2, 1971, when Helen Dorothy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Outram of Witherforce, Ontario, became the bride of Lawrence Franklin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Simpkins of Toronto.

The bride wore a gown of white Bengaline and French lace with matching veil, and carried a bouquet of sweetheart red roses and lily-of-the-valley.

The maid of honour, Miss Phyllis Bleaken of Oakville, and bridesmaid Miss Lorraine McGeggor of Toronto wore gowns of yellow lace over taffeta and carried yellow centred white daisies.

Mr. William Thompson of Toronto, a close friend of the groom, was best man, and Donald Outram, a brother of the bride, and Mr. Trevor were ushers.

Reverend Martin officiated. The reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, "Moonwynks", Rosedale, Ontario.

After a honeymoon trip to New York, the couple took up residence at Willowdale, Ontario.

Activities Of The Haliburton Hospital Auxiliary

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Red Cross Hospital at Haliburton, which was inaugurated in March of this year, has been active during the spring and summer months. Three successful sales of home baking were held and refreshments for the Hospital opening were provided with many donations received from other people in the community.

A portable hair dryer and men's electric razor for patient use were purchased and displayed on opening day, and recognition was given to the first baby born in the new Hospital in the form of a memento.

The Auxiliary are hoping to purchase a portable television set for the Patients Lounge for Christmas.

There will be a General Meeting to discuss this and other projects next Tuesday evening, November 16 — see Coming Events.

Carnarvon United Church Notes

October has been a very busy and successful time at the Zion United Church at Carnarvon.

Thanksgiving Sabbath saw a full congregation, with many of the second generation being home and attending their home church, and there were also quite a number of the summer residents. The special appeal brought a favourable response, with somewhat over $100.00 — we must do more for missions as these folk are facing a bitter time and India is unable to do too much for them.

Our pastor was absent for a week conducting a mission at Shelburne, Ontario, and he reports a very encouraging time.

Our choir, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Gorrie, do a very fine service for us. The rendering of that hymn "Take Time to be Holy" was very lovely. This was sung at the October 31 service and was followed by a fine discourse from our pastor, Reverend W. N. Oake, dealing with the important element of life "Faith".

In speaking of church affairs, I wish to witness what this church has meant to me. I interpret here the church as the body of believers in the Lord Jesus Christ. I have found great help in a better way of life, as I have attended in the pew of this little church since 1905. Many changes, but the Word of God and the person of the Christ remains steadfast.

THE NATION'S BUSINESS

By WILLIAM C. SCOTT, M.P.

We are in the fourth year of Canada's second century as a nation, and I have to admit that I'm not as optimistic about our future as I was when we were celebrating our centennial in 1967.

Prime Minister Trudeau swept into power in 1968 on a wave of immense personal popularity, and the promise of a new Canada in which everyone would be equal, and in which everyone would have a hand in the running of the country. Some of the personal popularity remains, but the promises have long ago faded into the lexicon of politics.

Three years ago, Canada was indeed on its way to becoming a great nation and it appeared that we might be able, in time, to eliminate, or at least greatly diminish, poverty and want, and to create a climate in which Canadians would draw together in a common purpose.

Today, we realize that the opposite is true. Where we had once been one of the great neutral countries of the world, a country that almost everyone would accept as a mediator, we have lost credibility and objectivity in the United Nations and elsewhere. There was a time when we were the first nation called upon by the U.N. to mediate quarrels between nations, and our troops were welcomed into areas where a military presence was needed to preserve an armistice. It is very doubtful that we will ever again be considered in that light.

During his three years in office, Prime Minister Trudeau has been carrying out a deliberate campaign of anti-Americanism that has now developed into a hate-America hysteria. During the same period, he has been wooing the Communist nations of the world, the traditional and philosophical enemies of our free enterprise, parliamentary system of democracy. His cabinet ministers have had to go along with the Prime Minister's policies, and, if they failed to do so, they were compelled to resign or be fired.

A couple of months ago, Mr. Trudeau's anti-American posture came home to roost, and Canada is now in a position where she is threatened from a quarter that has always been our pillar of strength. We are in danger of losing the very lucrative U.S. market for our exports, and there are no immediate, or even future, prospects of alternate markets. The seriousness of this situation can be measured by the fact that the U.S. accounts for more than 50 per cent of our exports.

Canada is one of the world's principal exporting countries. Without a large volume of exports, and guaranteed markets for our products, Canada's standard of living would tumble to the level of the small, developing nations of Africa.

Mr. Trudeau's latest attempt to embarrass and alienate the United States occurred in the United Nations, when Canada aligned herself with the tiny Communist country of Albania, to defeat an attempt by the United States to prevent the expulsion of the Government of Taiwan. Albania's resolution called for the expulsion of Taiwan, the first time a nation has been thrown out of the world body, and Mr. Trudeau's government went right along with Albania. A few days ago, mainland China was admitted to the U.N. and Taiwan was expelled - a victory for Mr. Trudeau and a defeat for Canada.

Let us have a look at this ridiculous situation in the light of the number of people involved. Albania has a population of 2,200,000 people. It is ruled by a national Communist Party, and the leader of the party has ruled the country for more than 25 years. The chief trading partners of Albania are Communist China, Poland, Czechoslovakia and Hungary. By contrast, the Republic of China, of Formosa, has a population of 14,700,000 people. Formosa has an elected government, and it trades chiefly with countries in the western world, including Canada and the United States.

The worst aspect of Canada's stand in favour of expelling Formosa is that it establishes a dangerous precedent. There is now the chance of similar actions being initiated by Communist members of the United Nations to expel small countries on almost any pretext. There are many members of the U.N., long-time friends of Canada, who can now be expected to review their relations with our government, and one of them is certain to be the United States. We cannot travel along such a course as this without, some day, reaching a dead-end, and I'm afraid that day might be closer than many people think.

WHEN MEN WENT WILLINGLY TO WAR

As the two great wars of this century move gradually out of memory and into the pages of history books, our annual Remembrance Day recurs with alarming rapidity, for the veteran.

There was nothing "great" about either of those wars, except for their size. Yet, the old sweats call their war the Great War, and the middle-aged sweats have to settle for the title World War II.

The name of the day has been changed from Armistice Day to Remembrance Day. A good change. But I'm glad they haven't changed the date. November 11th is an ideal time to remember. It's usually cold, wet and gloomy. Even the skies seem to weep at the folly of man.

It's difficult to conceive of hearing those hallowed clichés: "fallen comrades"; "In Flanders fields the poppies grow . . ."; "At the going down of the sun, and in the morning, we shall remember them . . ."; "lest we forget . . .", on a hot day in July.

But I'm not being sardonic when I refer to hallowed clichés. They are clichés, but they are also hallowed, and they mean a great deal to the men — and many women — who gather once a year to remember that the cream of Canadian young men, in two generations, was skimmed off by a brutal fate on faraway fields.

It's hard to believe in these days of the burning of draft cards, of draft dodging, that in those two great wars, Canadians went not only willingly, but in most cases eagerly, to fight in a war 3,000 miles away, against an unknown enemy, for hazy reasons.

At least, with hindsight, the reasons were hazy. But at the time, they were crystal clear. The Kaiser was out to destroy the British Empire. Good enough. Hitler was out to stomp across the civilized world in jack-boots. Clear. Let's stop the sods.

We didn't fight to subdue anyone, as the Russians, Germans, Japs, Italians have done. We weren't out to conquer new territories. We were out to prevent someone from subduing us, or conquering our territory.

In both wars, there was a minority who "joined up" for less than heroic reasons: to get away from a nagging wife; to avoid the law; to escape a boring job. But in the first great war, Canadians literally flocked to the colours, swamping recruiting offices.

In that war, they showed a dash and elan and fortitude, once in action, that made them respected throughout Europe, and especially among the enemy.

And in the second, despite the disillusion of the depression, despite the cynicism of the thirties — perhaps the most anti-war generation of this century — they did it again. And once again they proved themselves, beyond a doubt, as doughty warriors on land, sea and in the air.

Personally, I didn't exactly flock to the colours. Both my brothers had jumped in early. That didn't bother me. I was a product of the cynical Thirties, a university student, and I laughed at them as they went through endless months of dull training, while the war in Europe was a complete stalemate.

But a time came. The Germans broke through. Civilization, as we knew it, was in danger of being trampled into the mud by the jack-boots.

That was when thousands of us stopped sneering at the "phoney" war and took the oath.

Looking back, I shake my head wryly as I remember how desperate we were to get killed. It was a traumatic experience to be washed out of air-crew, where your chances of being killed were fairly good, and wind up washing dishes at manning pool, safe as a sausage.

We knew what we were doing, in some instinctual way. We wanted to come to grips. That's why I feel a certain pity for the conscripts of the so-called free world, in these days. They are forced to go to war against an unknown enemy, for something they don't believe in, amidst an atmosphere of corruption and downright lies.

To all veterans: don't remember the blood and mud and sweat and brutality and fear. Just remember all the good times and the good friends. You'll never have them again.

Keep a tank of hot water handy.

You never know when you'll be needing it!

Cascade. A family-size tank, that keeps itself full of hot water. Quietly. Safely. Lots of hot water for all those unexpected cleaning jobs—

With a Cascade electric water heater in the house, you've got the biggest

Letter To The Editor

8 Peninsula Park,
Haliburton, Ontario.
November 6, 1971.

To The Editor

Dear Mr. Feir:

There was a report in the Echo on Thursday, October 7th, of a meeting the Haliburton County Board of Education held to receive a representation from members of the Ontario Water Resources Commission. At this meeting Mr. Brown outlined for the Board the nature of the proposed sewage plant to be situated on the property of the Board of Education.

According to Mr. Brown, a member of the Commission, there would normally be no odour unless the service was overloaded.

I would like to report to the members of the recently formed committee set up to deal with the sewage plant problem that I live at least a mile northeast of the most modern treatment plant in Ontario — the Humber Sewage Treatment Plant in Metro Toronto — and have smelled the sickening odour from it at that distance.

While travelling along the Queen Elizabeth Way from Port Credit to Toronto, I have smelled the odour from the Humber Plant before I was within a mile of it.

A meeting was called for the area in which I live, on Tuesday, October 26th, to discuss among other things this very subject, which notice I am forwarding to you. Perhaps you may wish to reproduce it.

That Smell . . .

Complaints have been increasing about the "bad air" from the Humber Treatment plant that periodically drifts across parts of Swansea. The plant has just been enlarged, and further expansion is planned. It seems to us that local people will continue to be plagued by this nuisance, unless we campaign for improved techniques of odour control. This association has written Metro Works and the Ontario government. So have some individual residents. A concerted effort will be needed to get action. We have contacted a citizens' group, For Ward 9, in the east end, who've had the same kind of trouble from the Ashbridge's Bay plant. We may borrow one of their ideas: an "odour survey", or log. This is kept for several months, then the results are analysed by Pollution Probe. These statistics could help to back up our case at Metro Council.

In the meantime, register complaints by phoning 365-5895 (Air Management Branch, Ontario Government) and by writing Mr. W. Hogg, Regional Abatement Officer, Air Management Branch, 880 Bay St. (Dept. of Energy and Resources).

Come to the meeting on Tuesday October 26th, and sign a petition about this problem addressed to the Metro Commissioner of Works.

The location of the sewage plant on the property of the Board of Education from an engineering point of view may be more practical economically than another site, but in my view it would be extreme folly to use the property of the School Board for this purpose.

Yours truly,
(Mrs.) Alice D. Partridge.

CARD of THANKS

Irene and Allan Hague of Haliburton wish to convey their sincere thanks to all their friends and relatives of Haliburton, Lochlin, Lindsay, Minden, and distant points for their gifts and cards. They enjoyed their friends calling on them on Saturday, October 16, 1971, their 50th Wedding Anniversary. "May God bless all who call upon His name. Be blessed with many years to enjoy their friends. As we have enjoyed our friends. Amen."

We would like to thank everyone who sent cards, letters and gifts to our mother, Mrs. Ross Sawyer, while she was a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital in Peterborough and in the Red Cross Hospital in Minden. We would also like to express our sincere thanks to relatives, friends and neighbours for their many acts of kindness, messages of sympathy, beautiful floral tributes and Gideon Bibles during our sad bereavement. Special thanks to Reverend W. Oake, Reverend Frank Ford, the Maple Lake U.C.W. and the John Welch and Son Funeral Home. Your kindness and blessing are deeply appreciated.

IN MEMORIAM

DUNCAN - In loving memory of a dear mother, Agnes Duncan, who passed away November 13, 1970; and also a dear father, Thomas Duncan, who passed away November 10, 1953.

There the earthly buds transplanted
For our coming watch and wait,
In the upper garden growing,
Just within the pearly gate;
Though our hearts break with sorrow,
With the grief so hard to bear,
We shall meet some bright morning
In the upper garden there.

—Sadly missed and always remembered by son Edward and daughter-in-law Carol.

DUNCAN - In loving memory of my father, Thomas Duncan, who passed away November 10, 1953; and mother, whom we lost on November 13, 1970.

A million times we've needed you,
A million times we've cried,
If love only could have saved you
You never would have died;
Things we feel most deeply
Are the hardest things to say,
Dear parents we loved you
In a very special way;
If we could have one life-time wish,
One dream that could come true,
We'd pray to God with all our hearts
For yesterday and you.

—Ever remembered and sadly missed by daughter Rhoda, son-in-law Edward and Girls.

DUNCAN - In loving memory of my dear parents, Thomas, who passed away November 10, 1953, and mother, Agnes, on November 13, 1970.

A silent thought, a secret tear,
Keeps their memory ever dear,
Time takes away the edge of grief
But memory turns back every leaf.

—Ever remembered by daughter Maisie, son-in-law Mervin and grandson Mervin.

Maple Lake News

Mr. Cecil Morrison and the boys were at Bethynia Farm, returning to Bowmanville last Saturday evening.

The first snowfall this year gave us seven inches and sent the cars to the garages for snow tires on Sunday. Mrs. Carrie Morrison was at the home of the Perry Morrisons for Sunday dinner (his birthday) and was one of the may asking for assistance.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Morrison accompanied Kathaleen Owens to Lindsay for the weekend, and reported no snow in Lindsay but from Cobocok up it was hazardous.

Mrs. Mabel Bacon attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Austin in Port Hope on Monday.

Friends and relatives were shocked to hear of the tragedy which struck the Doug McGuire family in Haliburton. We do hope that each will respond in some way to this situation.

Mrs. Joyce Sisson has gone into hospital for surgery again, as the steel pin in her ankle has given out.

With the hydro being off on Sunday the folks who attended church are to be congratulated, as St. Peter's Church is electrically heated.

(Intended for Last Week)

Mr. Claude Fader, a layman from Lindsay, took the service in the United Church at Maple Lake in the absence of Reverend Oake. Mr. Fader is a native son of Maple Lake, being the youngest son of the late James Fader. Several folks from other churches turned out to hear Mr. Fader, who gave us all food for thought as he told of his conversion to Christ. I, as one, am very proud to personally know this young man, and I wish him well in the Lord's work.

Mrs. Carrie Morrison was away to O.F.T.S. for five days.

Mr. and Mrs. Napier Simpson and children and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Simpson were at Blagdon Hill over the weekend.

Hallowe'en passed over in our district with no damage of a great extent reported.

Congratulations to the newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Davis.

Hunting is in full swing, and many of our local gals are taking part in the so-called sport. Good for the waistline, Honey!

Mr. Way of Toronto took in a couple of days of partridge hunting, and stayed with Mr. Ed Barry.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Prentice attended a christening in Madoc on Sunday.

We are now able to cross the bridge at the head of Maple Lake. This new bridge and approaches certainly are a credit to the township.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peck and children were with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Peck last weekend.

Mrs. Kathaleen Owens of the Ontario Forest Technical School at Dorset spent the weekend with Grace Morrison. This weekend they are going to Lindsay to shop for Santa.

Minden News

Winners at the Mini Card Party at St. Paul's Parish Hall last Thursday were Eleanor Walker for euchre and Jean Roberts for cribbage.

Students from the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School will have several holidays this week, depending on which days they had exams, and later Thursday for Remembrance Day and the Teachers' Meeting on Friday.

There are several persons in out-of-town hospitals, with Mrs. John Cowan Sr. in the Toronto General Hospital and Mrs. Walter Noice in the Ross Memorial Hospital at Lindsay. In the Minden Red Cross Hospital is Mrs. Joseph Warder and new baby girl.

There was a small Card Party at the home of Mrs. Wallace Walker last Friday, with Lil Martin taking high and lone hand (on a cut of cards). A tasty lunch and cup of tea was served following the games.

Next week, November 15 - 20, is Young Canada Book Week — what wonderful books of knowledge or fiction are available to everyone today! What a change from a hundred years ago when one book was a treasure and many persons had little chance to read. Children are curious, so bring them to the Minden Library any afternoon from 3:00 to 5:00 — they are certainly welcome, and we have excellent books of fact or fiction to suit all ages.

Tory Hill News

We were sorry to hear that Mr. Ross Anderson Sr. was taken to the Haliburton Hospital this week and is only in fair condition.

Mr. Fred Haas, father of Mr. Les Haas, is also in the Haliburton Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug McElwain and Nancy and Janet visited with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gill this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Riel and Cindy of Lindsay visited with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Riel.

Mr. James Black from Brooklin visited with Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Kemerer on the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Finlay Jr. and family visited in Peterborough on the weekend.

We are glad to hear that the "Queen of Tory Hill", Mrs. Maude Finlay, is out of hospital and is now at her daughter's home in London. Mrs. Finlay is now in her 92nd year.

What is Wilberforce trying to hide? We have yet to see the Monmouth Township news in the paper. All the other townships had their minutes in last week, but I guess they are behind as usual. Someone should have enough education to write the minutes down.

Mr. R. Switzer's car is now in the driveway for the winter; we just had our first snowfall on the weekend. How's your toe, Rueben?

Congratulations to Mr. Clayton Gill and Mr. Eric Finlay, who got some nice size deer on the weekend.

Carnarvon News

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson who were married on Saturday in Dorset. Mr. and Mrs. George Cowan and Brian Chambers were among the guests who attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Windsor have left for the south where they will spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harrison are in their home while they are away.

A lovely Shower was held on Saturday evening in the Christian Education Building for Gwen Packard, who is to marry Paul Harrison on Saturday, December 11. A good number of the neighbours gathered together, and Gwen was the recipient of some lovely gifts. We wish them both much happiness.

Maple Lake News

Mrs. Ernice Ball is not so well these days.

Congratulations to Gladys Peck who shot a deer on Saturday last; their gang getting three.

CHURCH NEWS

Hell Is A Place Of FIERY TORMENT

It is not my desire to enter into argument for the sake of argument, but when the Bible is misrepresented, as did the writer in the Church News of last week's paper, then I feel a truly Biblical answer must be given.

Witnesses ought to be witnesses, not deniers. I am a witness of Jehovah God and it is my purpose to assert the truth as God has given it. Let me state first of all that any attempt to explain away hell and a place of eternal punishment does not in any way change the fact that there is such a place and such a condition. The Bible is glaringly plain about this. To twist the scriptures to make them say otherwise is nothing short of deception.

May I ask why this determined effort to deny this solemn and terrible fact? Is it indeed because the same group of people who do so have also explained away the only one who is able to save us from that awful condition? If Jesus Christ is not the unique Son of God, then God has no other provision for the salvation of sinning mankind. If John 3:16 has any meaning at all then it means simply that here is God's own solution to the problem of sin. All the rest of the New Testament is an extension or elaboration of what God has done for us through His only begotten Son. "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." Acts 4:12.

Jesus Christ was God, manifest in the flesh. He spoke with absolute authority; and it is He who warned concerning, and described the awfulness of that eternal existence without God. Let us look carefully at some of the statements He made. In Matt. 25:40 "Then shall he also say unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels." And in 25:46 "and these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal." In the Gospel of Mark, chapter 9 and verses 41 to 48, it says that hell is a place of unquenchable fire; and it is people who have not lived right that will experience that terrible, tormenting flame.

In Luke 16:19-31 Jesus tells us about a man who actually experienced the reality of hell. And hell here is not the grave, because the grave only contained a dead body, and no dead body has the power to lift up his eyes or to speak. I take Jesus' word for it that this man was actually experiencing the torment of the eternal fire.

I personally have no problem with Rev. 20:13. All that pertains to death, which is the result of rebellion against God, will have its final destiny in the lake of fire. That is where the devil will end up with all his cohorts and all who fell for his deceptions. Rev. 20:10-15.

I have no need to explain away what the Bible teaches to be truth. I have no reason for fearing the awful wrath of God which the Bible says all His enemies will experience some day. I have taken God seriously when He offered salvation as a free gift, because His divine Son paid for it with His own life's blood. I have no fear of perishing, because on the authority of God's Word I have eternal life because I have accepted His Son as my own Saviour and Lord. Some day I will be in His holy and glorious presence, by His grace and love. This is the hope of every true believer in Christ. None who have this assurance will ever waste their time trying to explain away that from which they have been gloriously saved.

Your eternal destiny hinges on a person. He says, "I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." John 14:6. Salvation is for "whosoever believeth in Him".

Lorne Schmitt,
Minden, Ontario.

WHAT IS HELL FIRE?

It will help us in our quest for the correct answer if we first note a fundamental principle. Since the Bible is the Word of God it follows that it must be consistent with itself. It cannot contradict itself. For example, it cannot say at one place that the punishment for the wicked one is one thing and at another place that it is something entirely different.

Secondly, it should be noted that God's word uses both literal and figurative speech, even as do all intelligent persons. Thus throughout Jesus' ministry he kept using figurative or symbolic language to illustrate truths or in uttering prophecy. For example, in the 25th chapter of Matthew he spoke of separating people as separating sheep and goats. This second principle helps us in establishing the first. How so? In that often what seems to be a contradiction in the Bible is merely an instance where a figurative or symbolic expression has been given a literal construction.

In plain unmistakable language, God's Word tells us at Romans 6:23 that the "wages sin pays is death but the gift God gives is everlasting life by Christ Jesus our Lord". And what is death? It is the absence of life. As the dictionary defines it, death is the "cessation of all vital functions". When the first man, Adam, disobeyed God pronounced the death sentence upon him: "In the sweat of your face you will eat the bread until you are to return to the ground, for out of it you were taken. For dust you are and to dust you will return." — Gen. 3:19. Nothing could be plainer than that. Nothing is said about Adam having a soul that could not die nor about his being tormented in a literal burning fire because of his sin.

That is why we also read in the Bible that the dead cannot laud Jehovah; that in the day one dies, his thoughts perish; that in death man has no superiority over the animal creation; that the living are conscious that they shall die and that the dead are conscious of nothing at all; that there is no wisdom, knowledge or activity in Sheol, hell or the grave — Psalms 6:5, Psalms 146:4, Ecc. 3:19; Ecc. 9:5, 10.

Further, Jesus said at John 3:16: God loved the world so much that he gave his only begotten son in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not perish or be destroyed but have everlasting life. To destroy, according to the dictionary, means "to bring to naught by putting out of existence". Yes, according to Psalm 145:20, "The LORD preserveth all them that love him; but the wicked will he destroy." What is contrasted in the scriptures is not life in happiness and life in torment, but the gift of life and the absence of life or non-existence.

But what does the Bible mean when it speaks of hell fire in some translations. Some versions use this expression, but in such cases the original Greek word here used for "hell" is Gehenna, and not hades. Gehenna is used twelve times in the Christian Greek scriptures and refers to the valley of Hinnom outside the walls of Jerusalem. When Jesus was on earth this valley was used as a huge garbage dump where fires were kept burning by adding sulphur to burn up the refuse. Smith's Dictionary of the Bible explains: "It became the common lay-stall (garbage dump) of the city, where the dead bodies of criminals and the carcasses of animals, and every other kind of filth, was cast."

So when Jesus said that persons would be thrown into Gehenna for their deeds, what did he mean? Not that they would be tormented forever. Jesus used that valley (Gehenna) of fire and brimstone as a proper symbol of everlasting destruction. The "lake of fire" mentioned in Revelation has a similar meaning, not conscious torment, but second death, everlasting death or destruction. That such references must be taken figuratively is apparent from the fact that not only persons are shown cast into the lake of fire but also a wild beast and death and hell or hades. Would God torment a literal wild beast forever? Do death and hades or hell have personality and a moral sense that they could be accountable for wrong doing and do they have feelings so that they could be tormented? To interpret such expressions literally does violence to all reason as well as contradicts the rest of the Bible.

So the Bible shows the destiny of the wicked to be destruction. And the lake of fire or hellfire is indeed an apt symbol, for what is cast into a lake of fire would be destroyed.

Ray Zwidayk,
Haliburton.

WHY ARE DENOMINATIONS DWINDLING?

By Morris D. Norman,
Akron, Ohio

News media from the local level to national syndications have carried articles about the decline of religion in America. Attendance, membership and contributions are dwindling in most churches. According to a Gallup Poll, only 14 per cent of adults questioned in 1957 felt that religion was losing its influence, but in 1970, 75 per cent of those questioned had this feeling. Many churches are closing their doors; there have been a rash of mergers, both in local churches and in denominational groups. There is a growing conflict within most denominations between the age groups, ethnic groups, social groups, and between clergy and laity, and between "conservative" and "liberal".

I'm not an expert, nor even much more than a casual observer of denominationalism, but I think I know why these conditions exist. Churches, for the most part, are no longer religious organizations. They are social organizations that seek to solve political, legal and civic problems. They have involved themselves in everything but the soul. The "clergy" is involving itself in anti-war and civil "rights" protests, and, according to U.S. News and World Report, some have engaged in vandalism. Not a few encourage "civil disobedience". In denominationalism there is less and less resemblance between it and what Jesus Christ taught.

According to one study the decline was more prominent in "liberal" churches than "conservative" ones. It's been indicated that "liberal" churches are being used as "way stations" in a move from "orthodoxy" to a divorce from religion all together. The indication is that the less "conservative" the religion is the less involvement there is. This indicates to me that "religious" people really do not want a church that is involved in civic and social problems as it does one that solves spiritual problems. all, we have many non-religious organizations that can deal with the former problems. Let the church be the church! But those who move into "liberal" religion won't listen to the Bible anyway, because it doesn't answer their questions like they want them answered. So these "liberal" churches begin to find "solutions" that they like, which are not really solutions at all, but a license to "do their thing".

Those who want churches to be "religious" are becoming disappointed in modern churches whose interests are more involved in public housing, sufficient sewerage, women's liberation, racial issues and social entertainment; those who consider religion a spiritual matter, are tired of being a spectator where a "hired clergy" delivers an oration that has about as much spiritual food to it as dehydrated soup, and a hired choir that is more concerned with showing off their talents than uplifting the soul, and where the atmosphere is about as Bible oriented as a PTA meeting.

October Meeting

On a bright warm afternoon, Wednesday, October 20, twenty-four ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. William Cox for the regular meeting of the Minden Women's Institute.

The President, Mrs. P. Clarke, called the meeting to order and, after welcoming all, had the minutes read. The Secretary, Mrs. Lyman Cox, read the roll call and this was answered by "Songs of my Teens" — this was very interesting as many older titles were mentioned and much reminiscing was done by all.

The Women's Institute was very pleased to have Mrs. J. Fairfield with them, and she gave the members a very enlightening talk on "Early Teaching in Haliburton County". She showed them a picture of the Model School of 1895, of which she was one of the twelve teachers in the picture. These teachers took a four-month course and then were sent out to teach. Mrs. Fairfield's first school was at Peterson Corners and she had eighteen pupils. Because of weather conditions and the poor roads, school in those days never lasted over six months at the most. She found out that her pupils were the grandchildren of the earliest pioneers of our county. She spoke of attending a Teachers' Convention in Haliburton where the teachers stayed at the hotel for two nights and got six meals, all for $1.50. Usually the school house was a log one-room cabin, and the first school for Minden was such and built along the Gull River. The second school for the village was a three-room building as the population had grown enough for such a school. Many questions were asked at the conclusion of this interesting talk, and the members compared the past and present. Thanks was extended to Mrs. Fairfield very much.

Mrs. H. Welch will be unable to attend the Area Convention in Toronto in November and Mrs. Buttmore was asked to attend as the delegate.

Mrs. Buttmore asked all the ladies of the village and the surrounding area to please contact any W.I. member if they have a special recipe which they would like put in the Women's Institute Cook Book, as recipes are wanted as soon as possible.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. D. McLelland on Wednesday, November 17, at 2:00 p.m. and the special guest speaker will be Mrs. Rawlins who will speak on the Over 60 Club and how it will be organized. Mrs. Wallace Walker will also speak on "Agriculture and Canadian Industry".

Winner of the draw made at this meeting was Mrs. M. Sears.

A very delicious lunch was served at the close of the meeting by hostesses Mrs. C. Stevens, Mrs. H. Schrikkema and Mrs. C. Yearwood.

A.R.D.A. Supporting Winter Works

Several winter work projects supervised by the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests will be financed from Federal - Provincial sources through the Agricultural and Rural Development Agreement (A.R.D.A.). These projects will for the most part employ rural people in forest stand improvement work. This is essential work needed to provide the more valuable tree species with a better opportunity to develop through eliminating the competition from poor species, dead or diseased trees and trees which have not developed properly.

H. F. Crown, Director, A.R.D.A. Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food, has placed a high priority on providing these additional employment opportunities for rural people and with the co-operation of the Ontario

Department of Lands and Forests projects have been approved for Renfrew, Hastings, Haliburton, Peterborough, Victoria, Parry Sound and Nipissing. Full time employment will be provided to approximately 200 men from late November through March.

In addition a number of projects designed to improve overwintering conditions for the deer herd will also be undertaken by the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests in co-operation with A.R.D.A. These projects will be located in Renfrew, Frontenac, Hastings, Peterborough, Lennox and Addington, and Haliburton and will provide additional employment opportunities.

Interested applicants should apply through their nearest office of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests, A.R.D.A. Office or Municipal Office.

Forest Products Accident Prevention Association Meet At Bancroft

A meeting of the Forest Products Accident Prevention Association, Bancroft District Committee meeting, was held on Thursday, October 28, 1971, at the River Bend Motels, Bancroft. Present were William Mackenzie, logging contractor; Len Woiito, F.P.A.P.A.; Joe McGunn, Randy Welburn, Randy Welburn Logging; Gary Cannon, McKae Lumber; Rudy LeBoeuf, F.P.A.P.A.; Alex E. McGregor, McKae Lumber; Peter Freymond, Freymond Lumber Limited; Joe Irving, Canada Veneers Ltd., Pembroke; Jack Anderson, saw mill operator; Bruce Gibbs, Wilberforce Veneer; and B. G. Martin, Martin Lumber.

The minutes of the last meeting on July 15 were read and adopted, moved by P. Freymond, seconded by B. McKenzie.

There was a discussion regarding a sub-committee for the veneer plant operators. It was decided that this sub-committee would operate under both the Bancroft and Pembroke committees and that the meetings would be moved around these areas.

The list of operators in the woods, sawmills and veneer plants for the Bancroft district was revised. It was decided that all operators would be assessed for membership dues in the following way: 1 to 5 employees - $2.00 per year; 6 and over - $5.00 per year.

Cards will be mailed shortly notifying all operators of this voluntary contribution scheme, as funds are necessary for meeting room rentals, meeting notices, and etc.

Noise pollution in our industry was then discussed. It was finally decided that the committee would make official note of, or act upon, the following items: (1) To petition equipment manufacturers, backed by other Ontario committees, to reduce the noise levels of their machines, especially chain saws and those machines powered by Detroit Diesels. To also consider noise levels of any new equipment purchased. It was noted that some better mufflers are being installed on the diesels and that Pioneer Saws offer a quieter muffler on some models. (2) That attempts would be made to reduce sawmill noise by means of machine covers or baffles. (3) That veneer plants would compare noise levels of various similar machines.

The next meeting is to be held at the River Bend Coffee Shop on Thursday, December 9, at 7:30 p.m.
